Welcome,

This booklet was designed to assist members of the Jefferson community in the search for off-campus housing.

Please note that many commercial housing facilities have a turnover period during the summer months. We suggest that you begin seeking housing at least three months before your expected date of occupancy.

You will notice an asterisk (*) next to some listings. This indicates a proximity to Thomas Jefferson University.

This resource catalog is not an endorsement of any of the properties listed. Any contact personnel and rates included in this resource booklet are subject to change.

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING & RESIDENCE LIFE (DHRL)

On-Campus Housing Information

Long-Term

If you are a member of the Thomas Jefferson Community, you may be eligible to live on-campus. Housing is offered in the Barringer, Orlowitz and Martin Residences that include: efficiencies, one, two, or three bedroom apartments and private or shared community-style rooms. Most utilities are included in the monthly rental rates. An application is required. For further information, please call (215) 955-8913 or download an application from our web site, www.jefferson.edu/housing

Short-Term

Housing is offered to Jefferson Affiliates who may need housing for a shorter time: daily, weekly, or monthly stays. Accommodations are available at the Martin Residence on the first floor. Advance reservations and confirmation of affiliation are required for short-term housing. For further information, please call (215) 955-6479 or email: ShortTermHousing@jefferson.edu Visit our web site to learn about all our housing options including short-term accommodations www.jefferson.edu/housing (photos available)

Off Campus Housing Service Policy

The Department of Housing and Residence (DHRL) Life provides off-campus housing information to the Jefferson community. The public information service is available to Jefferson students, employees, visitors, and affiliates.

The primary goal of the service is to offer information to those seeking available off campus housing options. The Department of Housing and Residence Life does not endorse individual properties and or Realtors, and does not secure housing for individuals.

The Housing Coordinator will accept housing information from individuals, realtors, and property or leasing agents, with the understanding that the information will be displayed through the vehicle deemed appropriate by the Housing Administration Office.

The Department of Housing and Residence Life offers the following off-campus services through the Housing Coordinator

- Off-campus listings on an virtual bulletin board: www.jefferson.edu/housing
- Annual publication of the Housing Alternatives Brochure.
- Informational handouts (located in the Housing Office, Orlowitz Residence, 1000 Walnut Street, Suite 103, Philadelphia, PA 19107) www.jefferson.edu/housing

The Department of Housing and Residence Life does not accept any compensation for services rendered. This applies to those individuals seeking housing and to those advertising available housing.

WATERFRONT APARTMENTS

106 S Front St
Philadelphia, PA 19106
215-351-1535

The historic buildings that make up the Waterfront II complex date back to the late 1700's when this Old City neighborhood was the center of government and all that was important to everyday life in colonial Philadelphia. Additions to the structures in the mid-1800s were made to convert the buildings to suit the commercial enterprises that served the port businesses of that era. Home to an illustrious storied past, the buildings of Waterfront II were variously shops, residences and warehouses over the years. Today, these beautiful structures house 13 luxurious apartments that offer all the contemporary features you could possibly want.

IV. VIRTUAL BULLETIN BOARD LISTINGS

The Off Campus Bulletin is located on our main Housing website www.jefferson.edu/housing. Check out “Housing Options” and “Off Campus Alternatives” or go directly to http://www.tju.edu/housing/options/off\_campus.html

The available locations on this site change more rapidly than the contents of this booklet. Visit the virtual bulletin board to find listings for Center City and the surrounding areas. Listings on this virtual bulletin board typically, but not exclusively, include privately owned condominiums or houses available for lease or sublease.

All are welcome to submit a listing to be posted. Listings are accepted through the “Submit” button on the website. The Housing Department compiles and posts the information bi-weekly for a full term. The Alternatives Housing Booklet can also be found at www.jefferson.edu/housing

The Department of Housing and Residence Life Office is located in the Orlowitz Residence, 1000 Walnut Street, Suite 103 Philadelphia, PA 19107.

V. GENERAL INFORMATION

FINDING A ROOMMATE(S)

Jefferson affiliates can use your Campus Key and Password to access the Jefferson Black Board Community page for the Department of Housing and Residence Life. Once on the community page, click on the “Roommate Postings” link on the left hand side under the menu, “Housing Forms and Info.”

The Department of Housing and Residence Life assists with roommate matching for first year, incoming students who are choosing to live on campus in one of the three Residence Halls. Returning students are responsible for finding their own roommates upon renewing or transferring their housing contracts.

ABOUT PHILADELPHIA NEIGHBORHOODS

The Avenue of the Arts

Encompassing North and South Broad Street, The Avenue of the Arts is one of the premier cultural destinations in the city and the region and home to the Academy of Music, the Merriam Theater, Wilma Theater, Freedom Theatre and the dazzling Regional Performing Arts Center to be completed in 2001.

Chestnut Hill

Dining and shopping along Germantown Avenue has become the thing to do in this charming neighborhood with the gentility of a bygone era. Northwest of Center City but still within the city limits, Chestnut Hill began to flourish in earnest late in the 19th century, with the extension of the Pennsylvania Railroad line. The main thoroughfare, Germantown Avenue, is paved in hand-laid Belgian blocks and lined with restaurants, galleries and boutiques. Beyond "the Avenue," visitors find fine examples of Colonial Revival and Queen Anne style homes. The Woodmere Art Museum, at 9201 Germantown Avenue, is open to the public.

Chinatown in Philadelphia

The Chinese Friendship Gate, straddling 10th Street just north of Arch Street, is 40-feet-tall and is the first authentic gate ever constructed by Chinese artisans outside of China. Building materials, including special ornamental tile, came all the way from Tianjin, China, the sister city to Philadelphia. Many of the artisans were from Beijing. Chinatown is centered at 10th and Race Streets, around the corner from the Pennsylvania Convention Center. The neighborhood is a residential and commercial hub for the local Asian community. More than 50 restaurants co-exist with grocery stores, bakeries, souvenir shops, martial arts studios, and a fortune cookie store.

Convention Center District

Built in 1994, the state-of-the-art Pennsylvania Convention Center contains more than 400,000 square feet of exhibit and meeting space and is one of the finest facilities in the country. The Center is connected to the historic Reading Terminal Market, an open-air smorgasbord of 80 eateries and merchants

Fairmount Park

Beginning at the Ben Franklin Parkway, Fairmount Park encompasses more than 8,900 acres of winding creeks, rustic trails, green meadows and 100 miles of recreational trails. The world's largest landscaped urban park also contains early-American mansions, historic landmarks, and a variety of outdoor sculpture, playing fields, and 19th-century Victorian structures along Boathouse Row.

Historic and Waterfront District

The city's historic and waterfront park begins on 6th Street, just four blocks east of the Convention Center, and continues to Penn's Landing on the banks of the Delaware River. The site of Philadelphia's earliest settlements, the neighborhood is full of 18th-century influence including Colonial-era homes and cobblestone streets. In addition to the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall, Independence National Historical Park - America's most historic square mile - is home to numerous historical buildings and sites most are free to the public.

Manayunk

What happens when people discover the charm of a canal-edged Main Street just minutes from Center City? You get Manayunk — over a half-mile long, with over 65 shops and galleries and scores of restaurants. Shoppers and diners enjoy the wealth of possibilities, from Pacific rim relics to contemporary housewares and designer clothing. Le Bus is just one of the many Manayunk establishments offering relaxed dining inside and out.

North Philadelphia

Home to numerous educational, cultural and community organizations, North Philadelphia is perhaps best known as the location of Temple University and the Uptown Cultural District.

Old City

Your exploration of America's heritage continues north of Market Street in the city's first commercial district. In addition to the Betsy Ross House and Elfreth's Alley - America's oldest continuously residential street - Old City is known for the most exciting collection of art galleries on the East Coast.

Parkway/Museum District

Stretching from City Hall to The Philadelphia Museum of Art, the Benjamin Franklin Parkway is flanked by some of the city's most acclaimed institutions. The Parkway is also the location of numerous festivals and events throughout the year, including Fourth of July fireworks. Logan Circle, one of the public "squares" in the city's original design, is home to the magnificent Swan Fountain.

Rittenhouse Square

Life in the big city! It's not all hustle and bustle, and Rittenhouse Square, stretching from 18th Street beyond 19th along Walnut Street, is one of the most lovely and peaceful spots in which to read or just sit on a park bench. The square's entrances, plaza, and fountains were designed in 1913 by Paul Cret. The square was named for David Rittenhouse, president of the American Philosophical Society and professor at the University of Pennsylvania in the 18th century.

Society Hill

The charmingly restored, 18th century neighborhood of Society Hill is perhaps the most visited residential section of Philadelphia. With its fine mixture of Colonial and Federal style brick row houses, intimate courtyards and gracious cobblestone streets, Society Hill draws people on foot and by carriage. The neighborhood stretches from Front Street west to 8th Street and from Lombard Street to Walnut Street. The "society" in the name refers to the Free Society of Traders, a group of colonial businessmen to whom William Penn deeded land to encourage their economic leadership. Horse-drawn cabs driven by knowledgeable guides can be hailed in the vicinities of Independence Mall (4th to 6th on Chestnut Street) and Head House Square (2nd and Pine)

South Philadelphia

This mix of long-established residential ethnic neighborhoods, provides a tapestry of sights, sounds and tastes to explore. In addition to being home of the city's expansive professional Sports Complex, South Philadelphia is probably best known for the open-air Italian Market, outstanding Italian restaurants, and the home of the cheese steak.

South Street

A thriving commercial hub since colonial times, South Street has been reborn many times. Since the 1970s South Street has been an eclectic shopping and dining area of Philadelphia. From Front Street up through 9th, one now finds specialty boutiques intermingled with traditional chain stores and eateries of all kinds. More serious restaurants and additional shops spill over onto the numbered streets flanking south. There are several venues for small theater and live music. This diversity invites an equally diverse crowd to mingle and enjoy the eccentric and trendy scene, which is especially popular with younger visitors. Take your teenagers to South Street and you might even get them to a museum. (They'll love the Mummer's Museum at 2nd and Washington.)

University City District

Located west of Center City across the Schuylkill River, University City is home to the University of Pennsylvania and Drexel University and a proliferate community of educational, cultural, technological and entertainment organizations

Washington Square District***

Centered around one of the public squares planned by William Penn, this area of the city connects the historic and commercial districts. Walking through the quaint neighborhoods you will discover Jewelers Row and Antique Row, two of the city's specialty shopping areas, as well as the Walnut Street and Forrest theaters. Thomas Jefferson University Hospital Main Campus is located in Washington Square West.

VI. BEING A TENANT

HOW TO BE A GOOD NEIGHBOR

DHRL strives to foster a sense of community for those who choose to live on campus. Being a positive member the community should go beyond the perimeter of the Thomas Jefferson University campus. Our office must encourage all Jefferson affiliates to take time to Be Good Neighbors wherever they choose to live.

- INTRODUCE YOURSELF: Once you get settled, or even before you sign a new lease, be sure to personally introduce yourself to your neighbor (or would-be neighbor). If you feel comfortable, exchange phone numbers.
- SHOW RESPECT AND CONSIDER YOUR NEIGHBORS' LIFESTYLE: Sometimes, you can mitigate challenges before they even start; for example if they work nights, quiet mornings will be important to them. If they have young children, quiet evenings will be very important to them. Similarly, give them information that will help them be more considerate of your rigorous academic schedule.
- BE A GOOD CITIZEN. Shovel snow, offer to carry your neighbors groceries, or get involved in the block or community association
- KEEP UP THE APPEARANCE OF YOUR PROPERTY. Keep your property clear of trash and debris. Take time to learn what trash receptacles are preferred and what day is trash pickup/recycling on your street.
- BE CONSCIOUS OF SHARED WALLS: If you're in a row home or apartment building where you and your neighbors share adjacent living spaces, consider noise levels. You can help by moving TVs and speakers away from adjoining walls.

Thomas Jefferson University expects that Jefferson affiliates will conduct themselves with honesty, integrity, and citizenship both on and off-campus. As leasers of property and members of the community, Jefferson affiliates must act in a proactive manner to avoid disrupting your neighbors, as well as your own academic schedule. Choose roommates and housemates carefully and establish house and guest rules in the beginning. Clearly communicate expectations of roommates and guests.

SAFETY TIPS

- Travel in groups and in well-lit areas.
- Always keep your keys in your possession. Never keep them under doormats, in mail slots, or in other "hiding" places. Never have duplicates made.

- Always double check that doors and windows are locked before leaving your residence, even if you are just running to the store.
- When inside, double bolt your door.
- Make sure that the entrance to your apartment/house is well lit and inform the landlord to replace lighting when necessary.
- If you go choose to walk or jog by yourself, let a trusted friend know when you plan to be back to your space.

FIRE SAFETY-THE FACTS

In more than 50 percent of adult fire fatalities, victims were under the influence at the time of the fire. Alcohol abuse often impairs judgment and hampers evacuation efforts. Cooking is the leading cause of fire injuries on college campuses, closely followed by careless smoking and arson, according to the U.S. Fire Administration.

BUILDING SAFETY TIPS

- Does the company you are renting from practice an effective key control system?
- How are duplicate keys made?
- Does the landlord or property manager do background checks on all employees who have access to your apartment?
- Are apartment doors re-keyed between tenancies?
- Are you notified if the landlord/property manager/maintenance needs to enter your unit?
- Each building has unique properties and safety issues, investigate the detection features and fire escape routes before there is an emergency.
- Inspect the appliances and all heating elements. Check electrical cores and coils.
- Are there a sufficient number of electrical outlets? Electrical cords can compromise fire safety if there are too many or they are improperly placed.
- If applicable, inspect the fireplace. Especially if there are fire places in several units, make sure your landlord takes responsibility for inspecting and/or scheduling each annual chimney cleaning.
- You should know if your landlord is careful to properly store necessary combustible materials outside, away from heat and people.
- Especially in homes built prior to 1978, when children are present report peeling or chipping paint. Homes built before 1978 may have been painted with lead-based paint. Unless the spaces have been tested and are negative, repairs in these spaces should be conducted in accordance with the Renovation, Repair, and Painting Rule.

PERSONAL SAFETY TIPS

- Appliances like portable heaters, electric grills, and deep fryers can be dangerous if used improperly. Read instructions carefully.

- Practice safe cooking and do not leave your cooking unattended for any length of time. This includes food in toaster ovens and microwaves.
- Do not overload electrical outlets. Require a trained professional investigate whenever a breaker trips.
- If you are a smoker, exercise caution. Smoking outside is best. The on campus residences are smoke-free.
- Know where to locate (and how to properly use) a fire extinguisher.
- The use of halogen lamps can be dangerous. Do not use them.
- Do not drape curtains or decorate lamps in any way.
- Do not tamper with fire safety equipment for any reason.
- Memorize and practice any published fire escape routes.
- Treat each alarm as a real fire emergency.
- Place smoke alarms in every room and entry level of the house and replace smoke alarm batteries every term.
- Place a carbon monoxide detector in the unit.
- Never leave a candle burning when you are not in the room or when you go to sleep. Candles are prohibited in on campus residences.
- Never run extension cords under rugs.
- In the case of fire, evacuate and stay out. Call 911!

WHEN LEAVING FOR A BREAK OR AWAY ROTATION

- Have a friend or neighbor staying in the area check on the property during away periods or breaks.
- Use light timers to discourage someone from thinking no one is home.
- Lock all doors and windows.
- Travel with your expensive personal items: laptops, jewelry, gaming systems, etc.
- Retain personal property insurance to protect your personal items. Many companies offer inexpensive policies that will cover your assets.

Check out the DHRL and TJU Campus Security and Safety at www.jefferson.edu/housing and www.jefferson.edu/security to learn about more preparedness tips.

ALCOHOL

Know the law, as well as the Jefferson Policies

- You must be 21 years of age to possess and consume alcohol in the state of Pennsylvania.
- Public drunkenness is a summary offense under Section 5505 of the Pennsylvania Crimes Code (Title 18).

- Selling or furnishing liquor or malt or brewed beverages to minors is a misdemeanor of the third degree under Section 6310.1 of the Pennsylvania Crimes Code (Title 18). In addition to criminal charges, individuals over 21 who serve minors may be liable to pay monetary damages for any injuries that occur as a result of the minor consuming alcohol in their residence.
- It is illegal to charge money for alcohol without a valid license.
- As a Jefferson affiliate and University representative, you must uphold the Jefferson policies and code of conduct. All Jefferson University Policies are available on Pulse.

Know the effects of alcohol

- The blood alcohol content (BAC) at which one is driving under the influence is .08. For folks under the legal drinking age, BAC is (.02).
- Poor judgment and risk of injury is more likely as one's BAC raises.
- To avoid the problems associated with alcohol use, individuals should especially avoid binge drinking.

RENTERS INSURANCE

Landlords typically have property insurance, but this does not cover your personal property. Individual who lease a property must prepare for the possibility of a crisis: break-ins, fire, water damage, or accidents. It is recommended that you purchase renters insurance in order to protect your belongings. Personal property insurance is required for residents who choose to live on campus.

DO I HAVE TO RECYCLE

YES! Recycling is the law in Philadelphia. If you don't recycle, you can be fined up to $300.

SNOW REMOVAL

Unless your landlord indicated they would be responsible for snow removal in your written lease, you are responsible.

Philadelphia Code (10.270), "(1) the owner, agent, and tenants of any building or premise shall clear a path of not less than 36 inches in width on all sidewalks, including curb cuts, abutting the building or premises within six hours after the snow has created to fall. The path shall be thoroughly cleared of snow and ice."

HAPPY NEIGHBORS, HOUSEMATES, AND ROOMMATES

- Communicate! Be clear on your expectations from day one.
- Discuss the lease term. For example, though many students leave for the summer, most leases are 12 month contracts. Are all roommates responsible for utilities and other expenses during the summer months when they may not be in the area? Will you plan to sublet? Will your roommates have a say in the sublease? Discuss your plan ahead of time.
- Discuss utilities and how will they be split? Do you expect all parties to pay for an amenity that you want? (internet, cable television, HBO).
- Address concerns immediately as they arise. How do you feel about boyfriends or girlfriends staying overnight? Address things that bother you while they are new and small. This can help your roommate become aware and avoid accidentally upsetting you.
- Discuss household shopping responsibilities. Do you want to share food, clothes, movies, etc?
- Develop a cleaning and household chore schedule in the beginning.

ASK QUESTIONS/UNDERSTAND YOUR RIGHTS

Speak with your current or future landlord about your safety concerns and the guidance questions outlined in the Building Safety List. If your landlord is unresponsive, the Philadelphia Police Department may be of assistance. The PPD will do a safety check of your apartment upon request. This service is free and can be arranged by contacting the Crime Prevention Officer of your district<sup>1</sup>.

The Landlord Tenant Act of 1951 outlines a tenant's basic rights. Since 1951 there have been certain amendments to the law.

Among many other rights, tenants have the right to Fair Housing or freedom from discrimination because of membership in a protected class (in the state of Pennsylvania that protected classes are: race, color, national origin, gender, familial status, disability, creed, ancestry, or age over 40).

The City of Philadelphia is a wonderful place to live and continue your academic pursuits, but you should take every measure possible to ensure that your new home will be a safe one.
