National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS)

All federal loans (Stafford, PLUS and Perkins) students received are reported on the National Student Loan Data System. The information is accessible to guaranty agencies, lenders and authorized users at schools. Students can access their information using their Department of Education pin number at the NSLDS website.